GENERAL BASEBALL NEWS OF THE DAY

The Pittsburg ball club beat the Clevelands in a very fine game yesterday. Morris pitched well, and Fields and Beckley each made a home run. Boston and New York played a tie game. Chicago and Philadelphia each won an interesting con-

PEPECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE DISPATCH. CLEVELAND, August 20 .- It was a lucky thing for Pittsburg that to-day's game didn't commence where it ended. If it had, the Clevelands would have won. It did not, however, and the game went to the Pittsburg boys, and deservedly. Morris exercised all his cunning and during six innings the babies failed to hit the ball past the infield. In the seventh a little batting was indulged in, but it was not until the eighth that they succeeded in placing the sphere where there were no fielders. Hanlon's men, on the contrary, began early, earning two runs in the opening inning. Bakely was at his bes: after the third, and had he pitched as good ball in the first part of the game, the result might have been different. Rowe's awful throw to Beckley was the only piece of inaccurate fielding. The ball went high above the first baseman's head and into the stand, permitting Teleau to score. McKean, Stricker, Dunlap and Kuenne played

BEGAN THE PUN.

Pittsburg began the run getting in the first. Beckley came near retiring the side on strikes; he then hit a wicked grounder which caromed off Bakely's shin to a point between short and third. Fields was pathetically appealed to by Hanlon to make a hit and he complied readily, sending a home run to right, scoring two earne runs. In the third about the same thing oc red. Carroll was sent to the bench on a fly when Rowe took up his ash and singled to center and Beckiey batted out a terrific home run drive to right sending in Rowe before him.

The visitors had men on bases in the second, generosity, but succeeding batsmen could not bring them in. The Clevelands had no chances to score until the fifth when Tebeau crossed the plate with an earned run. McKean had gone to the bench from first on Rowe's assist. Tebeau batted a swift grounder to Rowe which the short stop juggled and then THREW OVER BECKLEY'S HEAD into the pavilion. Tebeau continued in his into the pavilion. Tebeau continued in his chase around the bases, and crossed the plate before the ball was fielded back to Morris. Zimmer got his base in the sixth, but was fielded out at second when Bakely hit to Rowe, permitting the visitors to execute a double. In the eighth Tebeau, who generally manages to break the spell which keep at the babies from hitting the ball, led off with a double to right. He went to third on Gilks' out from Rowe to Beckley. McAleer and Zimmer flied out to Sunday and Hanion. It was in the ninth that the Pittsburgs came near letting the game slip Sunday and Hanion. It was in the ninth that the Pittsburgs came near letting the game slip from their grasp, and it was the fault of Mor-ris, who had up to this point been the central figure in the game. Bakely, who seldom hits safe, was sent to first on balls, and Radford joined the pitcher on the bases in the same sort of a present. Stricker tried to sacrifice, but only succeeded in fouling out to Carroll. Mc-Kean batted a grounder to Beckley, going out at first, but Bakely and Radford advanced a base on the play. Twitchell singled to short, sending in two runs. Tebeau's single advanced Twitchell to third. McAleer filed out to Rowe, ending the game. Score:

Kick Very Unreasonable. PRECIAL TELEGRAM TO THE DISPATCH. WASHINGTON, August 19.-President Young to-day received a long letter from Umpire Phil Powers, explaing in detail the circumstances of the recent row at Cleveland during the last New York series. He states positively that McAleer did not come within a foot of touching the base, and he quotes Charlie Snyder and other members of the Cleveland team to prove that his decision was just and proper. Mr. that his decision was just and proper. Mr. Young has also received letters from other persons in Cleveland who were present during the disputed game, and they uphoid Umpire Power's decision. Up to the present time no protests have been filed against the continuance of Mr. Powers as a member of the League staff, and Mr. Young states that Powers will probably be umpiring in the League for several years to come, unless some unforeseen accident occurs.

C. D. White, secretary of the International League, to-day telegraphed President Young asking him if he would recommend "Old Reliable" Phil Baker as an umpire. Mr. Young promptly replied that he regards Baker as a first-class umpire, competent to fill the position in any league or association. This probably means Phil's appointment on the International staff.

HARDING A LITTLE TIMID. One of Kilrain's Backers Visits Friends PROPERTY THE PERSON TO THE DESPATOR

TORONTO, August 19 .- W. E. Harding, of the K. Fox's representative as backer of Jake Kilrain in the recent prize fight at Richburg, was in the city to-day, and went out to Bridge this morning. He spent this afternoon with Edward Hanlan.

"Billy Harding is a Canadian, you know," said the oarsman to-day, "and his people live at Bridge, near this city. He has gone up to see them, and will return to Toronto in a day or two."

The reason for which Harding has chosen to skip lightly from under the shadow of the American eagle's wing and revisit the home of his boyhood, is that the American eagle is coming down with fell swoops on the gentlemen who were close to the ropes in the Sullivan-Kilrain fight. He will tarry on this side of the border till the clouds roll by.

he had served his time he returned to Chicago. He lived with his parents in that aristocratic neighborhood where Snell resided. He was hunted up, doubtless, by several of his prison companions who had secured their liberty, and used as a decoy, he being familiar with the homes of rich men in the vicinity.

"Another fact not generally known is that old man Snell received two bullets, one a 38-caliber and the other a 44-caliber, which shows that they were fired from two revolvers, and from right angles. It is not very probable that Tascott had a revolver in each hand. One of the chambers in Snell's revolver was found to be empty, and no trace of a bullet was ever found. Tascott was not injured, and this shows that one of his companions received Snell's bullet. his companions received Suell's bullet.
"My idea would have been to have traced the whole case from the Frankfort Peniten-tiary. This theory, I think, has not been followed out. I believe Tascott is alive and is in some large city in this country. He would be perfectly safe in New York or San Francisco; could live in security for a hundred years by merely attending to his business and not frequenting public resorts, where he would be liable to meet the policemen or detectives. I think he will be captured sooner or later."

NEW FEATURE OF THE TERRY KILLING An Effort Being Made to Drng it Into Democratic Politics. SAN FRANCISCO, August 19 .- An effor is being made by certain political interests in this State, to make political capital out of the fatal result of the unfortunate meeting of Justice Field and Dave Terry in Lathrop. It is true that Terry represented Lathrop. It is true that Terry represented a faction of the Democratic party now dominant in this State, which has for a number of years past been hostile to another faction of which Justice Field is popularly conceived to be the head. But while there are two factions of the Democrats here, and while Justice Field is undoubtedly in symmetric factions. pathy with one of them and Terry was as truly a representative of the other, it is easily demonstrable that politics had nothing to do, near or remote, with the affair at The fatal enmity of Terry to the Justice grew out of the latter's judicial act in a side issue of Sarah Althea Hill's divorce proceedings against ex-Senator Sharon. The Terry faction, now eager to ward off some of the odium of the assault upon Justice Field, and to put the Justice on the defensive, are and to put the Justice on the defensive, are industriously reviving the history of the anti-monopoly fight in this State, of the famous special session of the Legislature of 1884, of the Stockton Convention which followed it, and to show that Justice Field was an aggressor in the angry party altercations of that period.
